National Dance Week-NYC (www.ndw-nyc.org) celebrates the joy and diversity of dance in the NYC community with an exhilarating 10-day festival of FREE dance events and classes at noted dance studios in New York City.

Held as part of the nationwide National Dance Week, the festival will be held from May 8-17, 2008 at a variety of venues throughout New York City.

Who Will Attend

Last year, hundreds of dance enthusiasts participated in events ranging from Latin, ballroom, tap, ballet, swing, hip-hop--even classes for kids and aerial acrobatics; and the event was an overwhelming success.

An Increasingly Popular Event

National Dance Week-NYC is produced by Tendu Magazine and continues to grow in popularity. It is covered in several local media outlets and has been recognized by New York City Mayor Michael Bloomberg, Borough Presidents Adolfo Carrion, Jr. (Bronx), Marty Markowitz (Brooklyn) and C. Virginia Fields (Manhattan). In 2008, the Mayor will again be invited, as will several VIPs and local government officials.

National Dance Week-NYC believes that dance contributes to the well-being of both the individuals who watch and perform it and to the community at-large. By offering FREE events to the public in different formats and dance styles, the festival brings immense value to the people of New York by encouraging them to be active, to be healthy and to celebrate life.
